

KEVIN LAFFERTY

Line Producer | Biography

Kevin Lafferty is an Emmy-Winning Line Producer whose long list of “world-builder” productions distinguishes him as one of the most sought-after collaborators for the industry’s top directors and showrunners.

Recently he worked with the esteemed Tim Burton in Romania on the Emmy-Nominated Netflix series “Wednesday”. His credits also include hit franchises “The Umbrella Academy” and “Locke & Key” for Netflix, the Jessie Buckley/Riz Ahmed feature “Fingernails” for Apple+, the Phoebe Waller-Bridge series “Run” for HBO, and “Star Trek: Discovery” for CBS and Paramount. His newest project, AMC’s third season of lauded series INTERVIEW WITH THE VAMPIRE, premieres this June.

Holding both Canadian and US Citizenship, Mr. Lafferty has worked across Canada and the US and produced shows in Romania, Puerto Rico, Hungary, and South Africa. He’s based in Toronto where he lives with his wife and three kids.